Expert Reviews:

Edmunds.com: An additional 2 inches of track width gained in the second generation, give the sedan a more powerful stance. On the road, the benefit of the additional track width is readily apparent as the CTS is more stable and copes better with quick directional changes.

newCarTestDrive.com: Comes with a basic package of 32 luxury, comfort, convenience and safety items including all the normal power assists, XM satellite radio, OnStar with turn-by-turn navigation, and a Bose eight-speaker sound system with CD, MP3 and auxiliary capability.

KBB.com: The CTS has not only proven itself a worthy competitor, but its quality and performance statistics place it in the same league with competitors from Mercedes-Benz, BMW and Audi.

TheCarConnection.com: The instrument panel, steering wheel, portions of the console and door surfaces are covered with leather and vinyl materials that have been sewn by hand.

MotorTrend.com: The second-generation CTS represents a natural progression in design evolution, balancing edgy qualities with elegant accents.

Automedica.com: Cadillac's new luxury sport sedan can confidently take on its rivals.

medley: Not only does the CTS boast sporty handling, responsive braking, and a tradition of technology innovation, its performance statistics allow it to compete with BMW, Mercedes, and Audi.

JDPower.com Power Circle Ratings

Power Circle Ratings (the Ratings) are developed by J.D. Power and Associates for JDPower.com. All Ratings are based on the opinions of consumers who have actually used or owned the product or service being rated. Since the Ratings are based on J.D. Power and Associates research studies that survey a representative sample of owners, they are indicative of what typical buyers may experience.

High ratings for a particular product/service/company do not necessarily mean that every customer will have a positive experience. It simply indicates that, on average, consumer perceptions of the product/service/company indicate that it stands out when compared with competitive products/services/companies.
