JDPower.com Ratings:

- Initial Quality Survey (IQS) Overall Rating

Expert Reviews:

Edmunds.com: class-leading towing capacity, which tops out at 7,200 pounds thanks to a brawny V8. Also receiving high marks are the pickup's innovative rear under-seat storage bins and comfortable seating.

newCarTestDrive.com: We found the Dodge Dakota surprisingly quiet, smooth and civil in its behavior, more like a car than a truck. Thick glass, big mufflers, and generous sound insulation throughout the body and firewall help reduce noise.

KBB.com: Steering and braking are predictable in response and feel, and the Dakota owner will likely have no complaints about how it rides smoothly down the road and handles responsively around corners.

ConsumerReports.org: The controls are nicely sized and easy to read, and the radio is simple to use. The gauges have good contrast and most controls are lighted at night.
