newCarTestDrive.com: The trunk is fairly large at 13.8 cubic feet. That's as big as or bigger than some midsize cars.

KBB.com: Handling has always been a Focus strong suit, and the recent comprehensive revamp of its fully independent suspension, coupled with a stiffer body structure, adds even more poise and control in that department.

ConsumerReports.org: All drivers were able to find a comfortable position. There's plenty of head, foot, and knee room even for taller people.
