Expert Reviews:

Edmunds.com: A slew of innovative high-tech features make the 2012 Ford Escape a tempting choice in the compact crossover category.

KBB.com: Like the rugged look of the old Ford Explorer and Jeep Cherokee, but don't want to deal with the truck-like ride, poor fuel economy and bulky size? The 2012 Ford Escape offers all the creature comforts of a car with the tall ride height and AWD ability of an SUV.

CarAndDriver.com: Offering two engine choices, as well as a hybrid option for the Escape, they're distinguished by trucklike styling, brisk performance, and strong fuel economy.

Manufacturer's website: The Escape features comfortable eco-friendly cloth seat fabric made from 100 percent post-industrial materials.

Consumer Guide: A low, level load deck and opening tailgate glass make for handy cargo loading and hauling.

JDPower.com Power Circle Ratings

Power Circle Ratings (the Ratings) are developed by J.D. Power and Associates for JDPower.com. All Ratings are based on the opinions of consumers who have actually used or owned the product or service being rated. Since the Ratings are based on J.D. Power and Associates research studies that survey a representative sample of owners, they are indicative of what typical buyers may experience.

High ratings for a particular product/service/company do not necessarily mean that every customer will have a positive experience. It simply indicates that, on average, consumer perceptions of the product/service/company indicate that it stands out when compared with competitive products/services/companies.
