Expert Reviews:

Edmunds.com: Thanks to head-turning styling, a fuel-efficient engine and a long list of standard safety features and upscale options, the 2012 Hyundai Elantra is a top pick for a small sedan.

newCarTestDrive.com: Fuel economy is a government-rated 29 mpg City, 40 mpg Highway with either transmission. That's better than the Ford Focus (26/36 mpg), Chevrolet Cruze (26/36 mpg), or Honda Civic (28/36 mpg).

KBB.com: The 2012 Hyundai Elantra sedan definitely outclasses just about everything in the segment, yet its low price, feature-laden standard-equipment list and large interior defy the compact-car image.

CarAndDriver.com: A larger, sleeker, more plush, and made-in-America Elantra takes fluidic styling cues from the bigger Sonata.

JDPower.com Power Circle Ratings

Power Circle Ratings (the Ratings) are developed by J.D. Power and Associates for JDPower.com. All Ratings are based on the opinions of consumers who have actually used or owned the product or service being rated. Since the Ratings are based on J.D. Power and Associates research studies that survey a representative sample of owners, they are indicative of what typical buyers may experience.

High ratings for a particular product/service/company do not necessarily mean that every customer will have a positive experience. It simply indicates that, on average, consumer perceptions of the product/service/company indicate that it stands out when compared with competitive products/services/companies.
