Expert Reviews:

Edmunds.com: The 2012 Hyundai Tucson has a handsome cabin, an ample list of features, sporty handling and a low price. It's a top pick for a small crossover.

newCarTestDrive.com: Though Korean, the Tucson design is decidedly European in flavor, sporty and aggressive, capturing the crisp, agile look for which German styling studios are famous.

KBB.com: The dashboard and interior panels, although mainly hard plastic, are nicely textured. The controls are within easy reach, feel substantial - the beveled window switches are especially nice - and operate smoothly.

CarAndDriver.com: Aimed at the bestselling Honda CR-V, the Tucson cute-ute competes with a longer warranty and value pricing.

Power and Associates research studies that survey a representative sample of owners, they are indicative of what typical buyers may experience.

High ratings for a particular product/service/company do not necessarily mean that every customer will have a positive experience. It simply indicates that, on average, consumer perceptions of the product/service/company indicate that it stands out when compared with competitive products/services/companies.
