Expert Reviews:

Edmunds.com: Lots of features for the money; innovative three-door design; high fuel economy; balanced ride and handling; distinctive styling; large trunk; long warranty coverage.

newCarTestDrive.com: Interior details include nice console support at the right thigh, good feel with the three-spoke leather steering wheel, pleasing uncluttered gauges, and digital information that's easily accessed.

KBB.com: Cabin material quality is appropriately practical for the compact coupe/hatchback category, with plenty of hard-plastic panels, but also soft-touch materials strategically placed where occupants are likely to rest their elbows.

CarAndDriver.com: Sporty styling, decent horsepower, hatchback practicality, and good fuel economy should appeal to young buyers.
